Dear Mum,

We had a great week of sunshine but to-day is only moderate - the rain just holding off. Had a touch of the flu over the weekend, am rid of it now. That's the reason I didn't travel last Friday. Kevin sent me a letter telling me about Anthony O Donovan's success in the County Championships, you may see it in the Southern Star as he sent it in. He kills himself at the organizing. I am avoiding the overtime like the plague, but at the moment I am doing a little gardening at 4/6 an hour. - trimming hedges and lawns and weeding etc, in my spare time.

The work is relaxing and profitable.
also I can do with the fresh air.
Havent been late for work yet a fair record. Am looking out for a C.I.E. excursion so I'll get the ticket before going down. Just used up your brown bread to-day so it lasted well. Read about the filming on the paper, Kevin tells me the 'Locals'
are making a 'stack', its doubtful.
I hope Rozes garden is going well,
may see her next time down.
This weekend I'll be gardening on Sat. morning, and then I am going to Santy to see the International athletics meeting.

Jerome.
